

CITY OF EUGENE

Emergency Response

February 22, 2021

Emergency Management Overview

- Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief Act.
 - National Disaster Recovery Framework
 - National Incident Management System (NIMS)
 - Eugene Emergency Code 2.1055
 - Eugene-Springfield Multi-Jurisdictional Emergency Operations Plan (EOP)
- Mayors Summit 2019

Emergency Operations Center (EOC)

2020

- March 13 – EOC opens
- March 20 - 50% virtual
- June 15 - Long-Term Recovery Plan to Planning and Development Department
- July 3 - 90% virtual & microsites to City Manager's Office
- September 7 - Holiday Farm Fire
- November 12 - Contact tracing initiated
- December 30 – Vaccinations begin

2021

- January 19 - Small business PPE Distribution

www.eugene-or.gov

Staffing and Training

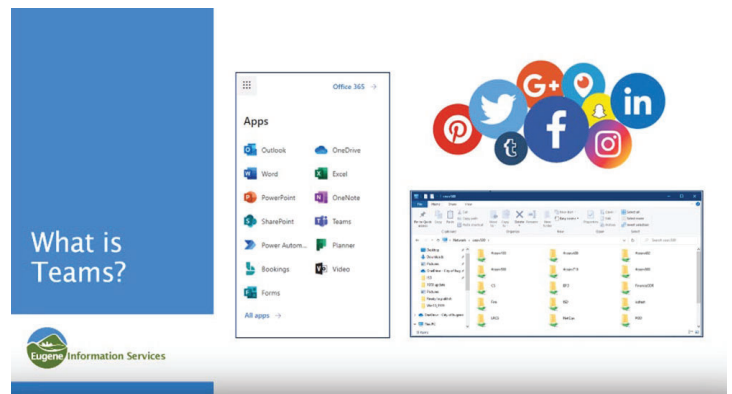

- Mandatory training
- COE staff experience
- Cross departmental
- Greater 120 in EOC
- Organizational resiliency

www.eugene-or.gov

System Creation

- Virtual EOC
- Nimble adaptation
- New software
- New systems
- Processes tested

www.eugene-or.gov

Partnerships

- Briefings / Planning meetings
- Communications - virtual
- Cross jurisdictions – NIMS
- Relationships / positions
- Staff all-employee meetings

www.eugene-or.gov

Communications

- City website
- COVID-19 survey
- 60,000 email accounts
- 30+ COVID-19 videos
- Bilingual communications

www.eugene-or.gov

Funding

- $37M in Federal funding
- Purchases - City, State, Federal
- Implemented the use of the State Mutual Aid Agreement
- Memorandums of Understanding
- Contracts

www.eugene-or.gov

Stewardship — Keeping Our Community and Organization Safe & Well

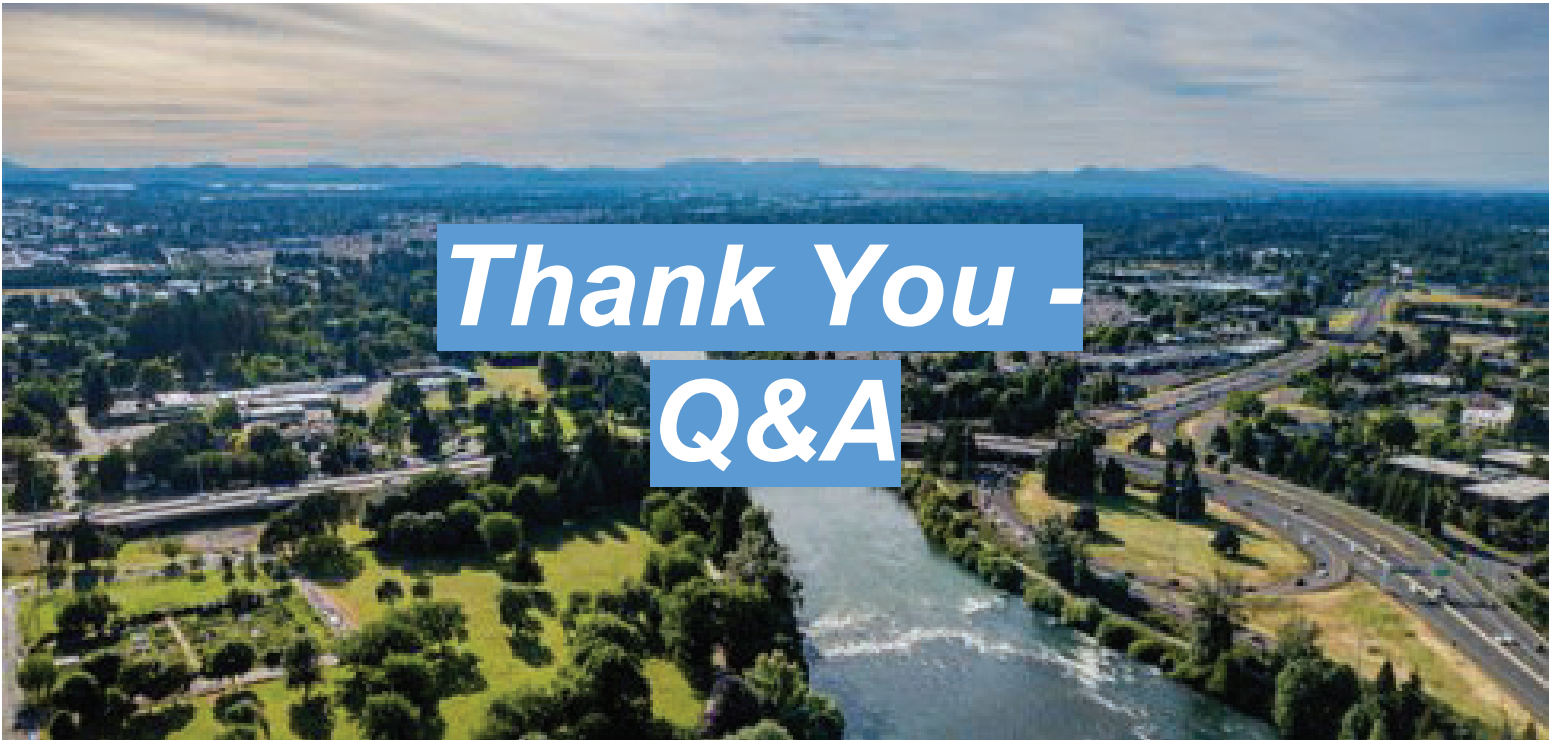

City of Eugene EOC Priorities:

- Be adaptive and flexible.
- Build regional public and private partnerships.
- Use broad and consistent communication.
- Ensure community confidence by demonstrating we are the right team.
- Explore creative ways to maintain business operations
- Flatten the COVID curve.
- Keep all employees safe.
- Take care of our community, especially the most vulnerable.

The Eugene EOC Continues Operations

www.eugene-or.gov

An aerial photograph of Eugene, Oregon, showing a wide river flowing through a lush green landscape with trees and parks. In the background, a highway with multiple lanes and overpasses is visible, along with some urban development. The sky is overcast with soft clouds.

Thank You -
Q&A

www.eugene-or.gov