Contact Telephone Number: 541-682-5652

ISSUE STATEMENT

This work session is an opportunity to update City Council on the community preparations for the World Athletics Championships Oregon22 event (WCH Oregon22), to be held in Eugene July 15 – 24, 2022. Staff will present an update on WCH Oregon22 planning efforts and citywide activations, including the Eugene Riverfront Festival, that will be held next summer in conjunction with the 10-day event.

BACKGROUND

Next summer will be the first time the World Athletics Championships (WCH Oregon22) will come to the United States, right here in Eugene, Oregon! This ten-day event is a global showcase for the sport of track and field, and will bring ample media and visitor exposure to the community. Eugene has a long history of hosting world-class athletics events and our tradition and reputation as TrackTown, USA makes our community and state the perfect first place to host this event.

As part of the citywide celebration, the City of Eugene will host the Eugene Riverfront Festival, an event that will be the cornerstone of a never-before experienced city celebration at the new Downtown Riverfront Park. The vision is to serve as the primary ‘experience hub,’ offering residents and visitors a free place to go that will showcase the best of Eugene and Oregon while welcoming and inspiring the world.

This update on WCH Oregon22 will give an overview of the event itself, the Eugene Riverfront Festival, and anticipated citywide activations through a variety of community and statewide partnerships.
