ISSUE STATEMENT

This is an opportunity for City Council to hear from applicants for open positions on the City's advisory boards and commissions. City Council selects a number of applicants each year to deliver a three-minute statement regarding their interest in serving the community through board or commission appointments.

BACKGROUND

The City holds an annual recruitment process for openings on the boards and commissions. The recruitment period for 2023 opened on March 1 and closed March 31, and was advertised through a variety of channels such as the City's website, the Register-Guard, and the neighborhood associations. 22 openings on 11 boards and commissions were advertised. A total of 108 applications were received for the posted vacancies. Of the applications received, 93 were for council-appointed groups and 19 for other advisory groups.

This meeting will include candidate statements for the Budget Committee, Human Rights Commission, and Toxics Board.

Applicant details were provided to Council, who selected to hear three-minutes statements from specific candidates. Candidates selected by four or more Councilors were invited to provide a three-minute statement. Incumbent applicants selected by five or more councilors will automatically be nominated for reappointment, but must be confirmed by a vote of the council (currently scheduled for June 12). When the number of incumbents who received five or more votes was equal to the number of open positions, no candidates were invited to provide a three-minute statements.
